Morning fog followed by clearing this afternoon is the weatherman's prediction for the Santa Clara Valley today. The forecaster anticipates little change in temperature, with the high ranging between 57 and 63 degrees, and increasing high cloudiness in the late afternoon. He expects gentle winds to prevail.

ASB Court Finds Ad Group Guilty

By LOLA SHERMAN

Alpha Delta Sigma, only organization thus far to plead a not-guilty case when charged with failure to submit a revised list of officers and advisers before Oct. 31, was found guilty by Student Court yesterday and fined $3.

Larry Kaufman, The Spartan Daily business manager, representing the advertising fraternity first asked that the charge be dismissed on the grounds of previous prejudice by one or more of the justices. Kaufman did not accuse anyone but asked the court to "search their souls."

JUSTICE LEAVES

In closed session, senior male justice Ron Gleason excused himself from the case.

Kaufman pleaded his case on the grounds that the letter and not the essence of the law was violated. Carl R. Hoffmann, professor of advertising, objected to the fact that he as adviser, had not been notified about the list.

Al Walburg, chairman of the Student Activities Board, appeared for the prosecution. He said the lists did have to be submitted for campus recognition, but he did not know when the law first came to his attention.

RYAN TESTIFIES

Visitor Don Ryan, ASB president, stated the regulation had been in the constitution previously, but the deadlines were added on June 7, 1957. Kaufman replied that The Spartan Daily ceased publication for the school year on June 6, 1957; therefore students could not be informed of the changes.

Student Candidates Wind Up Election Campaigns Today

Thirty-nine candidates for 18 student government offices wind up their campaigns today after a week of electioneering. The student body will go to the polls tomorrow and Friday.

Offices to be filled and candidates are: female representative at large: Sandy Creech, Terri Galvin, (incumbent) and Marilyn Ouzts.

—Senior male justice: Ron Gleason (incumbent).

Men Given Probation

Three years probation and the forfeit of $50 bail was the sentence given two SJS students, pleading guilty to charges of throwing home-made bombs around Los Altos, by Municipal Court Judge Alfred Bowen in Mountain View yesterday.

The Los Altos youths, David P. Armentrout, 20, of 330 Angles St., a psychology major, and Warren C. Rosvold, 19, of 921 Springer St., an engineering student, pleaded guilty to police charges of malicious mischief and disturbing the peace.

Commenting on the sentence, Armentrout declared that it was "quite fair," but noted that the probation would make it "...almost impossible to obtain a job for the next three years."

The probation requires the youths to make a monthly report to a probation officer.

Requests In Agenda

Requests for recognition of three student organizations lead off the agenda facing the Student Council today, according to Don Ryan, ASB president.

California Society of Student Engineers, Sigma Mu Tau, medical technology group, and the SJS Real Estate and Insurance Assn. are seeking recognition by the council.

The council also will be asked to appoint two students to the faculty-student Charter Day committee, which will prepare a program for May 2, anniversary of SJS' creation by the State Legislature as a state college.

Approval of procedures for recognition of new student organizations also faces decision by the council, Ryan said.

Says SJS Has Right To Choose Conference

Decision Monday by State Superintendent Roy E. Simpson giving San Jose State College option in the choice of conferences with which it will play football was not quite the blanket freedom originally understood from his written statement, Pres. John T. Wahlquist made clear on his return to the College yesterday.

The prerogative of playing football under rules of the conference with which San Jose State College "is most closely affiliated" was not ence whose rules will be effective on this institution.

Pres. Wahlquist suggested this conference might be the present West Coast Athletic Assn., whose rules are comparable, except with minor exceptions, to Pacific Coast Conference regulations.

However, he was careful to point out, decision as to whether this or some other conference is the one SJS will adhere to is yet to be determined. An effort to arrive at a decision must be made soon, he declared. "From the standpoint of recruitment our situation is urgent."

The president met yesterday with his top athletic advisers to plan a meeting with the Intercollegiate Athletic Advisory Committee as the next step in outlining SJS's athletic future.

At yesterday's huddle the president said that the meeting with the IAAC will be held "as soon as possible."

"At the meeting," he said, "a decision will be made as to the conference with which to affiliate."

"If no agreement is reached with the IAAC," he said, "I may take the matter up with our SJS President's Council or the College Advisory Board. Time, however, is of essence in this matter because of recruitment problems."

IAAC Meets Today

Pres. John T. Wahlquist will meet at 11 a.m. today with the Intercollegiate Athletic Advisory Council to hear proposals on SJS' future athletic program from representatives of the physical education department.

granted, Pres. Wahlquist explained. This request Dr. Wahlquist has presented to the Council of State College Presidents several times during past years.

What was granted, Dr. Wahlquist explained, was the right for the College to join the conference of its choosing; and then, having joined, to abide by the rules of that conference.

State officials did not concede that San Jose State College's mere "affiliation" with the Pacific Coast Conference, justified their freeing us from any present code restrictions. Hence, Dr. Wahlquist pointed out, before San Jose State College is really clear of its present athletic code restrictions it must in fact have joined the conference.

Spartanbriefs

Students planning to do graduate work may have many of their uncertainties dispelled by attending tomorrow night's senior orientation at 7:30 in Room 258 of the Science Building. Dr. Jerome S. Fink, assistant to the dean of students, has announced.

The field of graduate work will be discussed by Dr. Fink and Dr. James W. Brown, head of the graduate division.

Only a thousand subscriptions for copies of the '58 La Torre, the college yearbook, remain to be sold, according to Jerry Hummel and Ed Regalado, business managers.

Applications for two $300 scholarships and a $250 award available for sophomore and junior electronic students must be filed and completed by Friday, according to Dr. Harry Engwicht, associate professor of engineering.

The West Coast Electronic Manufacturers Association is sponsoring the two $300 scholarships, while the $250 award has been made available by Eitel-McCullough, Inc.

Students still wishing to apply may obtain applications from Jerome S. Fink, assistant to the dean of students, in Room 269, Engwicht said.

San Jose State's closed circuit station KOED will officially adopt a policy book known as the "Program Manual" this afternoon.

The manual is a comprehensive statement of policy concerning all radio and TV activities of the Speech and Drama Department using the closed circuit facilities.

Second meeting of the newly-formed Young Republican Club will be held tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in Room 17, according to Rick Buxton, organizer.

Security Guards Make Rounds Of SJS Campus 24 Hours a Day

Deputized Night Patrolmen May Make Official Arrests

By JOHN R. ADAMS

San Jose State does not have a night watchman, at least no one with that title. Instead, protectors of the college are called security guards.

SJS is patrolled by a 3-guard team, 24 hours a day, according to John H. Amos, superintendent of buildings and grounds. The day is divided into three 8-hour shifts—7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.; 3:30 to 11 p.m., and 10:30 p.m. to 7 a.m.

A half-hour overlap enables guards to get together and discuss problems encountered during watches.

POLICE MAJORS ASSIST Police majors serve as special auxiliary police, patrolling areas where city police cannot give adequate night protection. Ten work-aids students also patrol college parking lots day and night.

"Security guards are deputized and may make arrests with authority as any police officer," Amos said. Although SJS guards are not armed, they may carry a night-stick.

Each night guard checks 25 stations on campus, punching time clocks at 4-hour intervals, Amos stated.

Guards do not carry firearms for two main reasons, according to Amos. "First, we consider no crime committed by students would justify death and, second, city police, if summoned by telephone, are close enough to reach campus in approximately two minutes."

"SMALL CRIME RATE" In view of what he terms the "small SJS crime rate," Amos considers a one-man guard per eight hours sufficient. "I can recall only two robberies within the past six years," he added.

"SJS has not installed burglar alarms because they are expensive and apparently we have not needed them," Amos said.

Frank Gomes, security guard, said his co-workers have indicated they feel the job is "too much" for one-man patrols. In his opinion, three-man shifts would provide adequate campus protection.

Gomes said the uniformed force has served SJS for four years. "Up until then, a lone night watchman covered the campus," he continued. Other guards are Harvey Shaffer and K.W. Ard.

the Hot Seat

By RANDIE E. POE

Listening to Patti Page is like slipping into a new pair of silk pajamas. Cozy and icy-cool, you know.

As far as this corner is concerned, Patti is about six feet above her nearest female competitor.

Her playful softness was at a peak last week on the "Big Record," one of the best musical TV offerings this season. She seems especially outstanding after one absorbs some slum passages from Guy Mitchell.

By softness I am not craving the puppy-dog wholesomeness of Pat Boone, who, although he packs an above-average voice, tends to work overtime at being virtuous and angelic.

Nor is the first-degree humility of Dinah Shore necessary. Dinah becomes so humble at times that one expects her to come through the TV and carry out the garbage.

Humility an Asset

Humility is a wonderful attribute, but on-bended-knee meekness is a bit sickening.

Dinah undoubtedly stands for truth, beauty and banana cream pie. But she keeps these niceties forever onstage.

Miss Page, on the other hand, has genuine warmth and sparkle, which needs no window dressing. Even the cool ones would have enjoyed her last show, which also headlined Benny Goodman, the amazing Sammy Davis Jr. and showmaniac Dick Contino.

Top Shows Are Rare

Actually, it should not be necessary to commend an artist for a brilliant show, but such is the state of TV entertainment today.

Top shows, like two-headed cows, are becoming rare. Patti whispered lush versions, selections from her groovy "Manhattan Towers" album. Such songs as "I'm Learnin' My Latin," "This Is My Song," and "All My Love" helped her attain an ideal balance.

No Rapid-Beat

Her delicate phrasing heightens her already artful style; the ear has little trouble in following along. Although Miss Page has sold more than her share of hit tunes, she has not become diabolically preoccupied with recording rapid-beat fables.

Somehow she has managed to pencil in refined liveliness, completely ignoring vulgarity and primitivism.

We are thankful that just when Mr. Mitchell had seemingly driven us toward musical paranoia, along came Patti Page to deliver us from damnation.

And even the littlest angel said Amen.

Christmas Spirit Is Commercial

By JOHN R. ADAMS

MERRY CHRISTMAS? ? ? Now that there are a couple of Sputniks whizzing around the earth at tremendous speeds, Ol' St. Nick can give his reindeer a vacation.

"Dashing through the snow, with a Sputnik for a tow. Oh what fun it is to ride behind a Sputnik power-glide."

Well, anyway, that's the Christmas spirit.

Christmas is a time for giving presents and being thankful. More and more, though, this special time of the year is becoming a commercial enterprise.

HIGHER PRICES

Shoppers are now being confronted with higher prices for gifts that at one time had to be made at home.

One example of such staggering price increases exists in Richmond, Calif. Last Saturday this writer drove to that city to attend the wedding of a close friend. While waiting for the event my wife decided we should take a drive through the city.

On a well located corner, in the heart of the city, a Christmas tree display awaited customers. My wife remarked about the fullness of the trees. Suddenly she sat up and exclaimed, TWENTY FIVE DOLLARS!!! After recovering from near heart failure (My wife only screams when I am about to hit another car), I asked her what she meant by $25.

$25 DOWN

She looked at me and said weakly that the display of trees a few blocks back had a sign that read: $25 Down. I laughed. She made me turn the car around and go back to the stand. When we drove up to the stand I got out and, sure enough, the sign was there. My suspicions were aroused.

I went up to the owner of the trees and asked him about the

... THE TOP: The top, the top, the top, the cream of the crop. The Little Theater's current production, "The World Is Round" by Armand Salacrou, gives James H. Clancy, translator and director of the play, every right to proudness. Well-paced and effectively lighted, the drama more than pleased a full house Friday evening. With a good deal of humor, the drama well demonstrates the validity of Aristotle's "golden mean," in addition to noting that "the world is round." It certainly merits my nomination for "TOPS." (Additional performances will run Dec. 12-14.)

... A "DIRTY TABLE:" Dr. William Gould recently telephoned an ad into a local newspaper which included the phrase "... sturdy table for sale." The ad appeared as "... 'dirty' table for sale." The error was corrected the following day, and the ad ran correctly for three days. Dr. Gould reports, however, that more telephone inquiries were received about the "dirty" than the "sturdy" table. In fact, the table was considered seriously by a collector of antiques, whose interest was aroused by the phrase "... 'dirty' table for sale." The only trouble is, Dr. Gould declared, "we didn't sell it."

... TOO RARE: Commenting on the "make-up" of a recent edition of The Spartan Daily, Mrs. Irene Epstein, journalism instructor, declared, "It is quite 'rare'." Interpreting this remark for the staff, Leigh Weimers, editor-in-chief, explained, "... not well-done."

... FOR THE MASSES: Although "... education is for the masses and enlightenment for the few," Jim Freeze points out, it is beneficial to anyone who is "too lazy to work and afraid to steal."

Drastic Revision Considered by Cal

BERKELEY—(UP)—A drastic revision of entrance requirements, particularly in English, was being considered today by the University of California's College of Letters and Science.

If adopted, a key requirement for admission to the Berkeley campus would be a thorough knowledge of spelling and grammar.

William Fretter, professor of physics and chairman of a seven-man committee studying possible changes in entrance requirements, indicated that subject A examination in English would be made a requirement for admission instead of one for graduation as under the present system.

A University survey has shown that about half of the students seeking admission now fail in English A when they take the examination for the first time. The percentage in students north of Bakersfield who fail is 53.5, although 62-percent of students from San Francisco pass the examination.

Students who now fail the test are permitted to take remedial courses to make up the requirements in order to graduate.

Oregon Ducks Post 72-67 Hoop Victory Over Spartans

SJS Squad Seeks Revenge in Second Engagement Tonite

EUGENE, Ore. — Suffering its second loss of the season against one victory, San Jose State basketball squad dropped a 72-67 decision to the Oregon University Ducks here Tuesday night.

The two clubs collide here tonight at 8 o'clock in the final game of their two-game set. Coach Walt McPherson's Spartan five will return to San Jose after the contest to prepare for Saturday night's meeting with Stanford at Palo Alto.

Scrappy Franklin sparked the Webfoots to their victory last night, sinking five points with less than three minutes to play. Franklin's lay-in with 11 seconds remaining clinched the Oregon victory.

The score was tied 10 times and the lead changed hands 15 times before the Oregon five pulled out the victory. The Ducks held a three point advantage at the half, with a 32-29 lead.

Duffy paced the Ducks in the scoring column with 18 points, followed by Franklin who tallied 16, all in the second half. Guard Ed Diaz led the Spartans in scoring with an 18 point effort, 15 coming in the second half. Gil Egeland was second high for SJS with 15.

Duffy and George Padovan picked off 10 rebounds each to lead Oregon's backboard play. The Ducks grabbed 45 rebounds to the Spartans' 36.

Novice Meet Weigh-ins Set Today

Weigh-ins for the 21st annual San Jose State Novice Boxing Tournament are scheduled today from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the training room of the Men's Gym.

Boxing coach Julie Menendez, supervisor of the colorful mitt-fest, reported yesterday all novice boxers should have physical examinations completed by weigh-in time.

The tournament gets under way Thursday, with semi-final bouts slated Friday night, and finals Saturday night. Spartan Gym will be the setting for the affair.

The meet is open only to those who have never competed in an intercollegiate match. Competition will be held in 11 weight divisions. Trophies will be presented to the winner of each division, the winning team, and the winning coach.

Preliminary bouts will be one minute in length, while final bouts will be a minute and a half in duration, according to Menendez. The mitt tourney got its start 21 years ago under the supervision of the late Spartan boxing coach, DeWitt Portal. This year will be Menendez' fifth year as supervisor of the tournament.

Gym Meet

Members of the San Jose State gymnastics team will see action in an intersquad and intramural meet Friday morning at 10:30 in Spartan Gym, coach Bill Gustafson reported yesterday.

Independent Basketball Starts; Sign-ups Urged

Now that intramural football competition has finished, Bob Bronzan, director of intramurals, has turned his efforts to intramural basketball. Only eight days remain for independent team sign-ups.

According to Bronzan, independent competition will begin Jan. 6, with fraternity play to start on Feb. 28. "It is important that interested individuals sign up, for their teams, by Dec. 19," Bronzan said.

An entry fee of $5 should be paid to the Office of Student Affairs and the receipt should accompany each entry blank.

Any group of students may organize a team. Teams are expected from most of the academic departments on campus in addition to squads representing boarding houses, living groups, social clubs, religious orders, plus high school and junior college alumni groups.

The entry fee will cover the employment of referees and purchasing of trophies. As far as possible, games will be scheduled in the men's gym, Monday through Thursday from 4 to 9 p.m.

In addition to basketball, two-man volleyball is currently attracting the attention of intramural enthusiasts. Details concerning the administration of the tournament may be noted by consulting the intramural bulletin board located in the men's gym. Butch Walters and Hank DeQuinan are the current champs.

DELTA SIGMA PHI

The Green Room of the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco and the five-piece orchestra of Johnny Vaughn will provide the setting and music for Delta Sigma Phi's annual Carnation Ball Jan. 18. Social Chairman Gil Zaballos has announced.

The formal dinner-dance is one of the annual highlights of the Delta Sig social calendar. Vaughn's group is one of the top instrumental organizations in the Bay Area, Zaballos said.

KAPPA TAU

Last Wednesday an exchange dinner and scavenger hunt was held with Phi Mu sorority, followed by a get-together at the home of Barry Shaw, Hayward, on Saturday.

Sunday, alumni of Kappa Tau and Sigma Phi Epsilon met for a buffet dinner at the Kappa Tau house, 70 S. 14th Street.

Cordelia Hall and Kappa Tau also held a football exchange and barbeque at Alum Rock Park on Sunday.

Saturday night the Annual Christmas Dance will be held at the Fun Farm from 8-1. An 8-piece band will play at the affair.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

A coffee hour at the San Jose Woman's Club is slated by Phi Sigma Kappas for tonight so that everyone may meet the Moonlight

Girl contestants, according to Paul Bush, publicity chairman.

Friday the 13th marks the date of the annual Christmas dance to be held in the Spartan Room of the Hotel Ste. Claire.

Monday night elections made Ted Terzakis the new president. The other new officers are Harvey Diesner, vice president; Paul Bush, secretary; Al Russell, treasurer; Dave Towle, pledge master; Pete Marshall, house manager; Bick Goss, social chairman; Tom Liles and Ron Robinson, rushing chairmen; Phil Knight, sentinel correspondent; and Dick Hall, chaplain.

SIGMA CHI

Sigma Chi pledges will have a chance to shine Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 when a car wash is planned.

A successful sneak was carried out by the pledges last Friday. Activities were taken to Big Sur and left to find their own way home. Active captured were Ben Salvo, Al Undem, George Vevoda, Leigh Weimers, Sam Wood, Chuck Hayward and Bob Wright.

THETA CHI

As the ninth annual Theta Chi Dream Girl Contest swings in, the brothers of Theta Chi announce girls still in the running include: Zoe Bergmann, Alpha Phi; Joanne Johnson, Chi Omega; Diane Chenoweth, Alpha Omicron Pi; Cleo Diacomis, Delta Zeta; Anne Ryhlick, Delta Gamma; Diane Sullivan, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Sylvia Somers, Kappa Alpha Theta; Renee Aymar, Kappa Delta; Susie Pacheco, Sigma Kappa; Suzanne Michaud, Alpha Chi Omega; Gayle Gilardi, Gamma Phi Beta; Jeanette McDonald, Phi Mu; and Stephanie Green, Pat Baker, Sue Cox, Diane Forester, and Marilyn Walters, independents.

A party this Friday is the second of the Dream Girl Functions and will be held at Brookdale Lodge.

THETA XI

The brothers of Theta Xi held a dessert for the 12 Cinderella Girl contestants last night. The climax of the Cinderella activities will be the Cinderella Ball held in the Brazilian Room in Berkeley.

The pledge class will join the pledges of Kappa Kappa Gamma in a Christmas caroling exchange Dec. 17 from 6 to 8 p.m.

A pledge sneak was taken this past weekend. Active Chuck Bollen and Tom Mason were taken to Dodge Ridge to a cabin owned by pledge Rick Buxton.

College 'Protectors' Watch Campus

no need for installation of burglar alarms at SJS.

'RESPECTFUL' SPARTANS

"On the whole, we have found SJS students respectful and cooperative," Gomes said. At present the main campus problem is the lack of adequate parking facilities, causing some students to park in the wrong areas, he commented.

While admitting he has had some "close calls" in the line of duty, Gomes said those were not serious enough to warrant carrying firearms.

Gomes described a "close call" of two years ago. "I was just going into the Coop to make a routine check when I heard what sounded like money being poured into a bag," he related.

"I would have gone in if I had been armed. Instead, I telephoned the police, but by the time they arrived, the would-be burglar had disappeared. He had broken into a cigarette machine and taken the money. Two weeks later he returned to the Coop—and this time we caught him!" he declared.
